Col. A. J. Blackwell.

Sharp Spears.

DAVID, L. T., Dec. S .- Last week mention was made to the effect that Colonel A. J. Blackwell, who created a furor some years ago by claiming powers as a seer, prophet, etc., had been seized by the authorities of the Cherokee nation on the charge of treason, the crime according to the laws passed by the Cherokee congress being punishable by death. The specific charge against him was selling land in the Cherokee country to white people.

Blackwell is known all over the West. When the Cherokee strip was opened last year Blackwell founded the town of Blackwell in Kay county. started newspapers, stores, etc., and made a fortune. After the country was thoroughly settled he moved to the Cherokee nation and founded this town. He started a paper, store and realty agency and was general superintendent of the town.

A number of Cherokees did not like laws of the nation, sold land to white As to nationalities persons. Two days later a squad of with Ireland second. Indian police swooped down on Blackwell's home and dragging the prophet from the arms of his wife and children carried him in irons to the Cherokee dungeons at Claremire. At the South there is reasonable activity in staple goods, with moderate improvements at Nashville, Chattanooga, Savannah, Augusta and Jacksonville.

Cleveland and Cincinnati are exceptional in reporting gains in demand in a few lines and at the first named from manufacturers. The movement of staple merchandise from Detroit and Louisville is characterized as featureless. At Chicago sales of cloth-ing exceed those in a like period in 1893, but the distribution of shoes, rubber goods and hardware lasmaller. St. Louis jobbers report the heaviest demand from nearby cauntry dealers to fill in stocks and a better feeling in the finished iron and steel trades. Kansus City jobbers send an encouraging report, based on efforts to push trade in Texas and favor the re-sults. North of Kansas City and west of Chicago trade reports are less favorable because of unseasonable open weather, and throughout Ne-braska and adjacent regions, owing to the need of rain. Some or all of these characteristics apply to Omaha, Des Moines, Mirwaukee, St Paul, Minneapolis and Duluta, the last named announcing the departure of the last lake vessel for the season. Aggregate Duluth shipments by lake this year are 1,000,000 tons over 1893, but receipts are a triffe smaller.

The tendency of prices is to in-creased firmness, the list of staples showing advances being longer than that on which quotations are mainturned.
